

Ryan Kupka

225 East 400 South
Orem, Utah 84058

801-310-9701
ryankupk@gmail.com

Education:

- Associate of Science in Computer Science with Honors Distinction from Utah Valley University 2017
- Current senior pursuing a Bachelor of Science in Computer Science with a minor in Spanish at Westminster College | Expected graduation December, 2020
- Member of Westminster's Honors College
- 3.75 College GPA

Programming Experience:

- Known Programming Languages and Technologies
 - C/C++, Python, Java, Processing, HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript, P5.js, R/MatLab
 - Git/bash, github and version control technologies
 - Proficient in Windows, Mac and Linux environments

Work Experience:

- Intern in the International Relations Office at the Autonomous University of Bucaramanga – July 2019 to present
 - Worked as the sole creator of software systems in HTML, CSS and JavaScript to systematize and simplify processes within the International Relations Office according to the client's specifications
 - Adapted existing software to function more in line with what was wanted by the users of the software
 - Worked in a bilingual environment with the clients to understand specifications and needs of the software
- College Mentor for Code To Success Utah – June 2018 to August 2018
 - Taught HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript, and REACT.js to Monument Valley High School students
- Grader for "Object Oriented Programming" at Utah Valley University – August 2017 to April 2018
 - Reviewed, corrected and provided feedback for student's programming assignments and exams
 - Helped students on an individual level with questions and extraneous problems